IIDA Texas/Oklahoma Chapter Announces Tuition Reimbursement Grant

Dallas, Texas – The Texas/Oklahoma International Interior Design Association (IIDA) Chapter announces their Tuition Reimbursement Grant has been opened for applicant submissions through Thursday, May 1, 2009. The grant is available for interior design graduate and undergraduate students within their 3rd and 4th years of study at a CIDA (formerly FIDER) accredited university within Texas and Oklahoma. A total of two (2) grants are available, with each grant totaling $3,000.

The Texas/Oklahoma Chapter Education Fund was established in 2006 through the IIDA Foundation. The IIDA Foundation is a not-for-profit philanthropic organization whose primary mission to advance interior design through education, research and knowledge to benefit IIDA and the interior design profession.

Information on eligibility requirements, selection criteria and award terms can be found on the Texas/Oklahoma Chapter website www.iida-tx-ok.org. Additional questions may be addressed to the chapter administrator at 214.880.1511.
